

STATUTE I.

CHAP. CXXXIII.—An Act to aid certain Indians of the Creek Nation in their removal to the west of the Mississippi.

May 20, 1826.

[Obsolete.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the United States will give to each warrior of the nation of Creek Indians, who shall, at any time within two years, remove to the west of the Mississippi, according to article six, in the treaty made and concluded at Washington City, on the 26th day of January, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, between the United States and the Creek Indians, one rifle gun and ammunition, a butcher knife, one blanket, one brass kettle, and one beaver trap; and shall further aid them with provisions on the way, and with transportation across the Mississippi river, and other streams; and furnish them with provisions for their support for one year after their arrival in the country which may be set apart for them, to the westward of the territory of Arkansas or state of Missouri; and the United States will pay to all such emigrants, the actual value of all the improvements left by them, and which are of a nature to add to the real value of the land, which is to be ascertained by a commissioner appointed by the President of the United States for that purpose, and paid for as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars.

United States to give to each warrior of the Creek nation, who shall within two years remove to the west of the Mississippi according to article 6 of the treaty of Jan. 26, 1826, one rifle gun, &c.

1. Why are lines 8 through 14 important to the article? (CC.5)
 - A. Because it discusses what the United States will give to each warrior of the nation of Creek Indians
 - B. It shows how Indians will support the products the united states provides them with
 - C. It shows how Indians should pay the products the united states gives to each warrior of their nation.
 - D. It indicates Indians removal to the west of Mississippi

2. According to the article, the value the United states pays Indians should be spent on what? (CC.1)
 - A. All the improvements left by Indians
 - B. Should be spent on the land they leave behind
 - C. Should be invested on a designated salary given to Indians
 - D. Should be given to the agent that accompanies Indians